How to use Library Resources for your ELP or Final Research Project
Monday, March 14, 2016
5:30pm – 6:30pm
Workshop description: Do you ever find yourself at a loss when searching for sources related to your course research topic? Attend this interactive, demonstrative workshop that will provide specific techniques and skills you can immediately put into practice.

Best Practices in Working on your ELP or Final Research Project
Tuesday, March 15, 2016
5:30pm – 6:30pm
Workshop description: This workshop is for anyone who simply needs a refresher in the techniques of planning the ELP or final paper. Leave this workshop with the mindset you’ll need to approach the development of a research topic, an understanding of the importance of outlining, as well as the best practices of methodically completing your paper.

FAFSA & Financial Aid FAQ’s for your 2016-2017 Academic Year
Wednesday, March 23, 2016  [New Date! Wednesday, April 13, 2016]
5:30 - 6:30pm
Workshop description: If you find yourself asking any of these questions: When is the FAFSA deadline? Am I eligible for grants? When will I receive information about the Scholarship Survey at NU? Does my GPA affect my financial aid? What do I need to know about how to complete the FAFSA for my Fall 2016 and Spring 2017 courses? Then this is a workshop for you!

PowerPoint Tutorial
Wednesday, March 30, 2016
5:30pm – 6:30pm
Workshop description: A hands-on workshop allowing students to learn and immediately practice technology skills in creating PowerPoint presentations. With straightforward guidance, learn to navigate the Microsoft PowerPoint tools and develop techniques to create with ease a solid presentation.