Monday, March 13, 2017 • 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

*“You Yourself a Sword Will Pierce”:
Walking the Way of the Cross with Mary*

Presented by Sr. Clare A. D’Auria, OSF

During the Lenten season, the Church invites us to the kinds of penitential practices that will help us to focus our attention on the Passion of Christ and to take to heart the invitation of Jesus to “take up the cross, and follow” (cf Mark 8:34). As we know, the most faithful follower of the way of the cross was Mary, the Mother of Jesus, and our Mother of Sorrows. You are invited to join us for this day of prayer to make the “Stations of the Cross” with Mary and to reflect on the ways in which she can accompany each of us as we make our own life’s journey—our own stations of the cross—with all of the heartaches which each of us carry.

Sr. Clare A. D’Auria, OSF, a Sister of St. Francis of Philadelphia, Aston, PA, currently ministers as a staff member at the Franciscan Spiritual Center in Aston, Pennsylvania. For half of her 50 years in ministry, Sr. Clare has served in retreat work, offering spiritual direction and conference retreats, as well as numerous workshops, especially in Franciscan spirituality, throughout the United States. She also serves on the staff of Franciscan Pilgrimage Programs, leading pilgrims through the holy sites in both Assisi and Rome. Her other ministerial experience has included congregational and provincial leadership, secondary and collegiate education, and a variety of additional administrative roles both within and outside of her congregation.
